MRD Media Release – Mildura Sports Entertainment Night

Mildura Regional Development (MRD), Mildura Regional Development (MRD) in partnership with Sports Entertainment Network (SEN) would like to invite locals and visitors to a Sports Entertainment Night to be held at Mildura Harness Racing Club, Friday 14, May.

The evening will offer guest speakers from a range of sporting codes who will share their challenges & accomplishments throughout their sporting career. These include; SEN's very own, Campbell Brown and Malcolm Blight, V8 Supercar Driver and Mildura Ambassador – Cameron Waters, Women's NBL Player – Amelia Todhunter and proud 'Barkindji Warrior' and Jiu Jitsu World Champ – Shantelle Thompson.

MRD CEO, Brett Millington said, "We're extremely excited about our partnership with SEN and the opportunities it is creating for the Mildura region and brand."

"We've seen recent success with our AFL advertising, and by having such a great list of guest speakers we hope this event not only brings locals, but visitors from nearby towns and communities" Mr Millington added.

The Sports Entertainment Night will also include a Fundraising Auction, with a signed Richmond Guernsey and Hot Lap with Cameron Waters up for grabs. All funds raised from the auction along with $15 of every ticket sold will go towards supporting the Mildura Base Public Hospital Paediatric Unit.

Tickets $65.00 and include three course meal and complimentary drink on arrival.

Head to the Industry & Business Events under the events tab on www.milduraregion.com.au or Eventbrite and search Mildura.

Ends.
