NEW BOARD DIRECTOR ANNOUNCED FOR MILDURA REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Mildura Regional Development has appointed a new board director, Ms. Jodie Madden. Jodie is an outcome-driven qualified valuer and an expert in the financing of Infrastructure and Property Developments. Backed by a Bachelor Degree in Business (Property) and Grad Diploma in Applied finance and investment.

Announcing the appointment, MRD Chair, Geoff Thomson, said Jodie would add an impressive range of executive level skills to the existing board.

Mr Thomson said, "We're fortunate to have Jodie's business strengths span so many integrated areas such as company and finance analysis along with strategy and project development"

"Jodie is passionate about the Mildura region and supports a number of female lead startups through investment and founding companies. This aligns strongly with Mildura Regional Development's strategic plan when shaping small to medium enterprises within our community." He added.

Jodie completes MRD's board vacancies and joins current directors in, Geoff Thomson (Chair), Geoff Dea, Judith Damiani, Maria Carrazza, Jodie Bromley and Brett Millington (Managing Director).

Ends.
